

Area business and government officials are all smiles at the ribbon-cutting Monday at the Norwalk rail spur project across from New Horizons Baking Co. Inc. In the front row (from left) are: Huron County Commissioner Gary Bauer; Norwalk Area-Huron County Chamber of Commerce Vice President Martha Huffman; Kim More, of the chamber of commerce board of directors; Lt. Gov. Lee Fisher; New Horizons Baking Co. Owner and CEO Tim Brown (with the large green, ceremonial scissors); New Horizons Executive Vice President Trina Bediako; Melissa Williams, Brown's daughter, who also works at New Horizons; Norwalk Mayor Sue Lesch; Norwalk Economic Development Director Ellen Heinz; and Huron County Commissioner Larry Silcox.
